A SENSATION SPRUNG

AGAINST ADOPTION OF SUCH A RESOLUTION.

Washington, Dec. 10.—Representative William Barrett (Mass.) enjoys the dis-tinction of being the author of the first thrilling incident in the present house thrilling incident in the present house of representatives. He threw a bombshell into that body soon after it convened by offering a resolution impeaching Thomas P. Bayrat, ex-secretary of state and now Unicel States ambassador to the court of St. James, for high crimes and misdemeanors. The grounds advanced in the resolution was the internales of Mr. Bayrat into the state of the production of the internal before the Edinburgh (Scotland) and the state of the production of the internal before the Edinburgh (Scotland). The state socialism, and said it had done more to "foster class legislation." breed inequality, "corrupt public life, "lower the tone of national representation," divorce chiese from politics" than any other cause. Such redections on the greaments goliler by an American ambassador before a foreign andisciple, it recitation clied, were in serious disregard of his obligations, and papers, to investigate and report by "impachment or charwise."

Mr. Marrett's resolution was preceded by one of his colleague, Mr. McCalle resolution was universed by ano of his colleague, Mr. McCalle resolution was that Mr. Barrett aprending a resolution as one constituting "a quantion of privilege."

Mr. Sap. leader of the minority, the privilege mature of the privilege mature of the resolution.

Speaker Reed overruled his point of order and the resolution was 'brown and trade and the privilege mature of the resolution.

Tyler, Tex., Dec. 19.—(Special.)—Hen Ford, a farmer, living on the county line of Smith and Van Zandt, west of Tyler, was gored by a bull last Friday, He attempted to drive the animal off his premises, when the inturiated beast plunged at him and gored him in the thigh and hip, breaking one arm and otherwise injuring him. His son came to the reaces, and shot the foredess animal. Mr. Ford is seriously though not dangerously him.

made an unavailing attempt to contest the privilege nature of the resolution.

Speaker Reed overruled his point of order and the resolution was thrown into the areas of delate, where it remained for three hours. The Republicans took the position that Mr. Rayard's speech constituted an offense against the country that liked for a stern relude, it not recall.

The Democrats took the position that

Mr. McCall followed Mr. Crisp and said Mr. Hayard made a violent partisan speech which was obviously one of impropriety.

Mr. Dinziev (Rep., Mich.) followed Mr. McCall and took the ground that Mr. Hayard was an ambansador of the United States and the questions was whether he should so far forget his duties as to denounce the policy of one-half of the people of the United States.

whether he should so far forget his duties as to demonice the policy of one-half of the people of the United States.

Mr. Dincley-Has the ambassador of this country a right to get upon a platform in a foreign country and demounce one-half of the people in the beam need by Mr. Bayard?

A LEADING INSURANCE AND REAL ESTATE MAN ARRESTED.

SWINDLING CHARGED

Represented That It Was Perfeeted At the Time.

Texarkana, Ark., Dec. 18.—(Special.)— W. A. Homar, a leading insurance and real estate man, was arrested this afternoon on a warrant soorn out of justice. Haywood's court, charging swindling. It seems that about one year ago the accused applied for a patent to a device for a horse collar and soon thereafter sold rights for certain territory to the same in Arkansea and Texas. These parties now certain territory to the same in Arkanses and Texas. These parties now claim that Bomar represented his patent as perfected prior to their purchase of rights, but this is atranoously demied by Mr. Bomar, who cites his dead occidents has been added to the same and the same and the same arrest created a deal of excitement. On said invanion, Mr. Bomar's arrest created a deal of excitement, this business standing in the comminity has always been first-chas, and his friends ciaim that he is the victim of persecution. The amount involved is alleged to be $500 by the prosecution. The accused readily gave bond, with leading merchants of the city as securities.
